- There will be NO REFUND if your cancellation is received after December 31, 2021 for ANY REASON.
- There will be no refund or credit offered for ANY REASON if you must leave the tour once it has started.

If for any reason the tour is unable to start due to an Act of God, Natural Disaster, or any other happening out of the tours' control, a 90% cash refund will be offered. 10% will be retained by the tour to cover advanced costs associated with the planning of the tour.

If, for any reason the tour gets interrupted before the ending location, due to an Act of God, Natural Disaster or any other happening out of the tours control, a pro-rated credit for a future Timberline Adventures tour will offered.

Trip Insurance

Timberline Adventures strongly suggests our guests research and purchase travel insurance for our tours. Although we do not provide this service directly, there are several choices available. We recommend a "cancel for any reason" policy. Following are a few suggested resources:
