Cancellation:

In the event of cancellation by a participant, all monies paid toward a trip registration will be refunded with the exception of a $200 per person cancellation fee, provided that written notification (email or letter), of such cancellation is received by Timberline Adventures at least 60 days prior to the tour departure. In the event of cancellation less than 60 days, but more than 30 days prior to tour departure, only those funds in excess of the initial deposit will be refunded. No refunds will be granted for cancellations received less than 30 days prior to tour departure. Transfer of initial deposit can not be transferred to a future trip if you cancel within 30 days of the trip departure. No refunds or discount will be granted for arriving late or leaving a tour prior to the scheduled conclusion.

Timberline Adventures reserves the right to cancel any tour for which fewer than 6 persons have registered, provided that registrants are noticed of such cancellation not less than 30 days prior to that tour's departure. In the event of such cancellation, participants may transfer to another tour, keep a credit for a future trip, or received a full refund at their option.

Refunds constitute full settlement in the event of cancellation of a tour; Timberline Adventures is not responsible for non-refundable airfares and or other travel arrangements.

Note: There are no exceptions to this cancellation and refund policy, regardless of circumstances requiring cancellation. We urge all participants to obtain travel insurance as protection against financial loss resulting from cancellation.

That insurance also can provide reimbursement for non-refundable airfares should we cancel a tour. We strongly recommend guests acquire travel insurance.
